SOCIETY

Not only was the fifth annual Library Ball, held on New Year's night, the greatest social success of the year, but it was the greatest in a financial way also. According to a statement issued this morning by Mrs. John Vert, chairman of the committee, the net sum realized from the dance was $358.50, which amount will be turned over to the public library.

Mrs. Vert's statement shows that $352.20 was received from the sale of tickets and donations and that an even $50 was taken in at the door, making a total of $402.20 received. Disbursements included $15 for the hall, $22 for music, $1.75 for the printing of tickets and $4.95 for decorations, a total of $43.70.

Mrs. Vert, on behalf of the committee, desires to thank all of those who contributed toward making the annual event a social and financial success.

The wedding of Lee Johnson and Miss Ellen Booth was solemnized yesterday, January 1, 1914, at high noon in the presence of a number of invited guests. The ceremony was performed in the parlors of the Johnson home on Hunt avenue, Rev. Walter S. Payne of Weston, being the officiating minister. The bride was prettily gowned in ivory charmeuse, draped with point d'esprit embroidered in crystal beads, and wore a corsage bouquet of creamy white carnations. The groom wore the conventional black, as also did his best man, Mr. Clifford Banister. The bridesmaid, Miss Agnes Booth, a younger sister of the bride was charming in white lace over blue charmeuse—Athena Press.

New Year's eve on McKay creek was made a memorable one by an enjoyable dancing party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Dave Ingram at which more than one hundred guests, among them a number of Pendleton people, were present. To the sound of orchestral music and tripping feet, the old year passed away and the new year was welcomed. The dancing continued until the wee sma' hours. Refreshments were served in a bountiful manner during the evening.

Mrs. C. S. Jerard will entertain with a small dinner party this evening for her son, Bertrand Jerard, who is with the University of Oregon Glee Club. The guests will be the other four members of the club who are fraternity brothers of her son, Messrs. Charles Reynolds, Earl Fortmiller, Robert Langely and Clyde Phillips.

Word has been received by her relatives in this city that Miss Jessica McEwen who is ill in a hospital at Richmond, Va., where she was attending school, is not improving to the extent wished for. It is understood a change of climate has been advised by attending physicians.

Misses Helen Johns and Claire Raley, who are freshmen at the University of Oregon, will leave on the midnight train for Eugene to resume their studies after spending the holidays at home.

Miss Edith Crockett left this morning for Corvallis to resume her studies at the Oregon Agricultural college after spending the holidays here and at Athena.

Mr. and Mrs. Seth Catlin returned to their home at Portland last night after attending the funeral of Mrs. Catlin's mother, Mrs. Leona Thompson.

Mrs. Frank Rose and Miss Nellie Rose returned yesterday from La Grande, where they spent the holidays with Mrs. Rose's mother, Mrs. John Scott.

ASAHU BUSH ESTATE WILL PAY HEAVY TAX

SALEM, Ore., Jan. 3.—If the Asahel Bush estate appraises $2,000,000, which is the valuation placed upon it in the petition to have the will admitted to probate, it will pay $20,000 state inheritance tax, which will be the largest amount paid by any estate since the law was enacted, says State Treasurer Kay.

The next largest tax was received from the Hopkins estate, which consisted chiefly of timber holdings in the southern portion of the state and was valued at over $1,500,000.

The petition filed in the probate court estimates the value of the real property of the Bush estate at $200,000, so the bulk of the estate is in stocks and bonds.

TERRA COTTA AND BLACK.

Something pretty, simple and chic is ever the cry of those showing girls' frocks and suits. Above is a charming answer to that demand, made of terra cotta broadcloth of light weight and fine texture. It was raised to the level of ultra-smartness by the addition of black fur, one of the many inexpensive dyed skins whose name is legend. The coat is the latest interpretation of the Russian blouse with and in this case fastening with a large button of the fur. The collar is of fur and the plain sleeves are finished with it. Fur buttons trim the skirt and coat.

Fashion Tips.

Do not indulge too freely in bright combinations of vivid colors. They will go hopelessly out of fashion very quickly.

Many blouses have simulated waistcoats of figured silk, brocade velvet or chiffon extending in points below the waist line.

Some skirts are apt to show bias bands of net or silk halfway up which look like a short tunic. Small collarets of skunk fur are combined with fox, dyed rose, purple or yellow.

Inexpensive Wedding Present.

An aluminum outfit does not necessarily have to be for the bride. The "outfit" is composed of an entire set of kitchen utensils in aluminum and is as welcome to the bride of twenty years' standing as to the one just married.

The set, which costs less than $8, is composed of a teakettle, atepot, a coffeepot, a cake turner—did you ever know that brides have a weakness for baking cakes?—a large spoon, six teaspoons, six tablespoons, a cereal cooker, a small roasting pan, a ladle, a funnel and slotted spoon for

LESS MEAT IF BACK AND KIDNEYS HURT

TAKE A GLASS OF SALTS TO FLUSH KIDNEYS IF BLADDER BOTHERS YOU.

Eating meat regularly eventually produces kidney trouble in some form or other, says a well-known authority, because the uric acid in meat excites the kidneys, they become overworked; get sluggish; clog up and cause all sorts of distress, particularly backache and misery in the kidney region; rheumatic twinges, severe headaches, cold stomach, constipation, torpid liver, sleeplessness, bladder and urinary "trouble."

The moment your back hurts or kidneys aren't acting right or if bladder bothers you, get about four ounces of Jad Salts from any good pharmacy; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to flush clogged kidneys and stimulate them to normal activity; also to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts cannot injure anyone; makes a delightful effervescent lithia-water drink which millions of men and women take now and then to keep the kidneys and urinary organs clean, thus avoiding serious kidney disease.

Scissors for the Kitchen. The innumerable things one can do with a pair of scissors in the kitchen! Try hanging a pair in a convenient place. To Clean Ivory. For cleaning ivory articles that have become discolored, the following is excellent, says the New York Press: Make a paste of pumice-stone and water, rub it on the article, then put it in the sun under a glass for some hours. When dry, brush off the powder and polish well with a soft rag.

Hook Hint. You know what a bother it is to sew hooks on the edge of a waist without the stitches showing on the right side. My cousin has found an easy way to do this, writes a contributor to the Woman's Magazine. She makes the hem the right width and runs an old corset steel through it, then sews on the hooks and pulls out the steel. She always uses eyes that are one size smaller than the hooks and says they never come unfastened.

Cleaning Silver.

A simple and efficacious way of cleaning silver is this: Make a solution of baking soda and salt, allowing a teaspoonful of each to a quart of water. Put this solution in an aluminum pan or kettle and when it boils drop the silver in for an instant only. Have another pan of hot water handy, for rinsing purposes. On taking the silver from the soda mixture drop it in the rinsing water, remove and wipe dry. No further polishing will be necessary and all tarnish and stains will have disappeared.—Mother's Magazine.

Lemon in Apple.

A new way to bake apples is to core and place them in a flat open pan with about an inch and a half of water sufficiently sweetened, and to which has been added a slice of lemon, says the Country Gentleman. Boil about 15 minutes, adding more water if necessary. Then remove and sprinkle the tops with granulated sugar and place under broiler to brown. This gives a better flavor, and requires much less fire and trouble to prepare.

TELLS HIS SON SANTA IS A MYTH; FINED $3

NEW YORK, Jan. 2.—Gustav Kotch, who lives in a flat in the Bronx, does not believe in Santa Claus, and was fined $3 for trying to convert his 6-year-old son to his creed.
 The chief witness against him was his sister-in-law. She testified that he had pleaded and wept when he tried to persuade the boy that Santa was a myth.
 Her cries brought a policeman to the house and the policeman took the man to the station, where he was charged with disorderly conduct.

CENTURIES-OLD CUSTOM IS SMASHED IN PARIS

PARIS, Jan. 3.—A custom almost centuries old was smashed to smithereens by Prefect of Police Hennion who came down with a heavy fist upon the multitude of lotteries which flourish along the boulevards of Paris.

is from Christmas Day until New Years. His ban is absolute and con- sideration is in the hearts of wheel- spinners. The better class of aris- tocrats hall the prefect's edict with joy.

On Christmas eve ever since before the oldest inhabitant can remember, the fair sort, has sprung up like magic along the entire length of the great central boulevards and avenues of Paris. There are thousands of them, lining both sides of the streets. In some candy is sold; in others cards are printed while you wait; still others sell other things, principally mechanical toys and Christmas novelties for children. But almost every other booth has its "wheel" and barker keeps up a perpetual yelp invit- ing passersby to stop up and win the grand prize. For years these gam- bling devices have increased until now during Christmas week the bou- levard form a huge Monte Carlo where, one bets a two-cent piece, in- stead of a louis, and wins—if one happens to be lucky—more or less worthless "prizes" instead of gold. The wheels are of every earthly va- riety but the principle is the same: Get the money and keep the prizes.

H. Hennion declares workmen spend a week's pay in the vain hope of winning a five cent stick of can- dy. He suffers and the legitimate toy-makers and vendors suffer, so the prefect simply has stopped the show.

HUNGARIAN SOUNDINGS DENIED AT WASHINGTON

WASHINGTON, Jan. 3.—The state department branded as "absolutely untrue" the published statement that agents of the Hungarian revolutionary party were in Washington to ascer- tain what America's attitude would be in the event of an organized revolt against Austrian rule.

DRY FOURTEEN YEARS. GAS WELL BIG GUSHER

KANE, Pa., Jan. 3.—To strike a 1,500,000 foot gas well in a hole which had been plugged for a dry hole by an Elk county gas company 14 years ago is the good fortune that befel John and Dan Healy of this city, and John Dan and Charles Hur- ley, owners of the Bay State hotel, at Bradford.

The well was drilled on the Dahler farm near Hallton, Elk county, and is the largest well ever struck in Elk county.

When the well was plugged 14 years ago it was at a depth of 2420 feet, and after the plugging was pulled out the Hurley and Healy company had to dig but 180 feet when they struck the big gusher.

MITCHELL SWORN IN AS MAYOR OF NEW YORK

NEW YORK, Jan. 3.—John Purroy Mitchell was sworn in as mayor of New York city amid impressive cere- monies.

Mrs. Mitchell and the Rev. Joseph Smith, S. J., who taught Mitchell when he was a boy; Mrs. Mayor, wife of the late mayor; her son, Rufus; Gaynor, and many city officials were present.

Hearty co-operation of other mun- icipal officials was asked by Mayor Mitchell in his inaugural address.
